MEASURES FOR ANTI RAGGING

To establish an effective Anti Ragging System in line with the directives of JNTU-H and AICTE, Marri Laxman Reddy Institute of Technology and Management, Hyderabad has taken the following measures:

The Anti ragging and discipline committee having reviewed the Anti Ragging policies of the Institution resolved that it requires to be implemented in to, taking the instruction issued by the AICTE, UGC, University and state Government bodies. Our anti- ragging policy is enclosed for ready reference.

1. An anti ragging committee comprising the Principal, Deans, HOD's, Wardens and Student Representatives has been constituted.
2. The Principal, HODs and senior faculty addressed the senior before I Year arrive, explaining to them the menace of ragging and severity of the situation, the directives of the supreme Court, the AICTE and JNTU and punishment that will be meted to them in case found to be guilty of ragging. They also informed them that the burden of proof lies with the accused and not with the victim.
3. Supreme Court instructions, Ragging act and punishments from university to be displayed prominently in all notice boards, canteen and other meeting places. Postures discouraging ragging have also been displayed at all strategic points, Scrolling on anti – ragging on all screens continuously Telephone numbers of anti-ragging committee to be displayed prominently.
4. An Anti Ragging Squad was also constituted with the members on vigil throughout the day from well before the college started up to late in the evening. In the first three months surprise visits by the members took place to check any untoward incidents.
5. Notification has been released clearly mentioning that ragging is banned in the college.
6. The Prospectus contained information about the directives of the AICTE about the prohibition and consequences of ragging.
7. On admission every student was given printed information about to who he has to turn for guidance for various purposes including warden, HODs and members of anti ragging committees along with their phone numbers.
8. Undertaking by student and parents has been taken an affidavit given by AICTE and UGC saying that they are aware of laws of ragging.

9. As part of the orientation a counseling session was organization for the fresher's and their parents. In his address the Principal explained to them the measures of anti ragging taken by MLRITM as per the recommendation of the JNTUH and AICTE.
10. A gap of two months was maintained between the class work of fresher's and the seniors.
11. The class work timing of the seniors and the juniors have been staggered so that the fresher's and the senior did not meet.

Avoidance:

- (i) Formation of anti – ragging squads from the date of joining of the first year for a period of 2 months. These squad will travel along with the first year in buses to and from the college.
- (ii) Visit to all potential trouble spots like the canteen, parking, auditorium, administrative block, wash rooms, library ad bus stops on a surprise basis.
