BRIEF REPORT

On the 7th of October, MLRITM hosted an invigorating session titled "My Story - Motivational Session by Successful Innovators," designed to be more than just a typical talk but rather an immersive experience aimed at inspiring and empowering students and faculty alike. Through the compelling narratives shared by Mr. Naveen Kumar Anumula, a distinguished Patent Attorney from Oscar Global Research, Hyderabad, participants were not just passive listeners but active participants in a journey of real-life success stories. Mr. Anumula's stories ignited flames of determination and ambition within the audience, captivating them with tales of overcoming challenges, seizing opportunities, and achieving remarkable success in the world of innovation and entrepreneurship.

With 44 enthusiastic students and 08 faculty members in attendance, the session transcended mere motivation; it served as a catalyst for transformative action. Participants were not only inspired but also encouraged to reflect on their own aspirations and potential for greatness. Mr. Anumula's insights resonated deeply with the audience, prompting introspection and sparking conversations about personal goals and ambitions.

As participants departed, they carried with them not just motivation, but a newfound sense of purpose and drive. Armed with insights gleaned from Mr. Anumula's experiences and the support of the institution, they were ready to embark on their entrepreneurial journeys with zeal and conviction. The session left a lasting impact, igniting a spark of creativity and determination that would continue to guide participants long after the event had ended.
