BRIEF REPORT

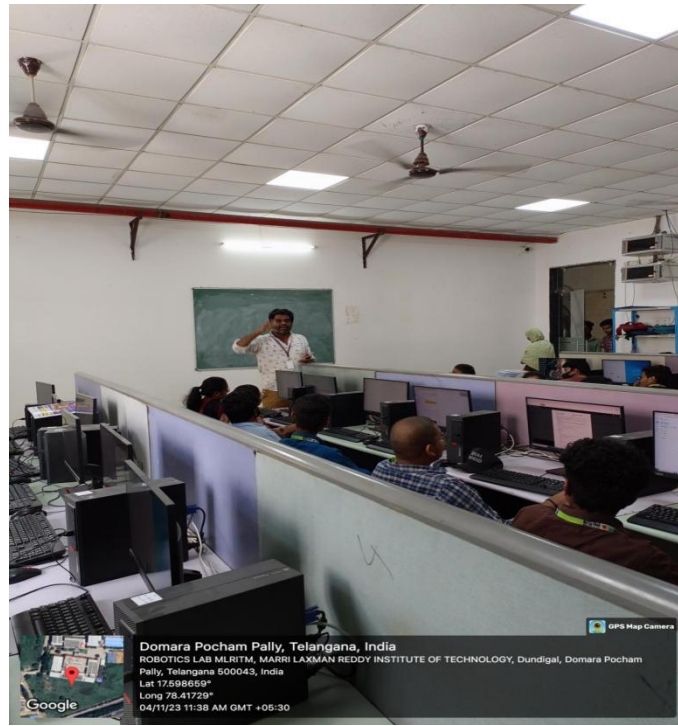

On the 4th of November, 116 eager students and 15 esteemed faculty members gathered at MLRITM for an enriching session titled "My Story - Motivational Session by Successful Entrepreneur." The event, driven by the Innovation and Incubation Centre (IIC) at Level 1, promised to be a transformative experience, offering attendees a glimpse into the inspiring journey of a successful entrepreneur.

Mr. Umesh Rathod, a distinguished representative from the Entrepreneurship Cell (E-Cell) at IIT Bombay, took center stage to share his insightful narrative. With passion and eloquence, Mr. Rathod captivated the audience, recounting his personal odyssey as a thriving entrepreneur. His anecdotes, peppered with invaluable lessons and hard-earned wisdom, resonated deeply with the audience, sparking a fire of inspiration within each attendee.

Under the visionary leadership of Dr. G. Amarnath, the convener of the event, and the meticulous coordination by Mr. B. Prasad, the session unfolded seamlessly.

As the session drew to a close, participants departed with more than just inspiration; they carried with them a newfound sense of purpose and direction. Through Mr. Rathod's narrative, attendees gained not only a deeper understanding of the entrepreneurial journey but also practical insights into navigating the challenges and seizing the opportunities that lie ahead.
