Course Overview:

Value Education is a course designed to develop ethical values, moral principles, and responsible behavior among students for personal and professional growth. The course focuses on fostering integrity, honesty, respect, empathy, discipline, and social responsibility while helping learners understand the importance of human values in everyday life. It emphasizes ethical decision-making, professional ethics, environmental awareness, national values, and harmonious living in society.

Course Objectives:

1. To understand core human values, ethical principles, and the basis of value-based judgments.
2. To develop essential personal values such as duty, devotion, discipline, honesty, and national unity.
3. To build a positive personality through integrity, discipline, scientific attitude, and kindness.
4. To cultivate emotional control, good behavior, cooperation, and awareness of harmful habits while promoting harmony with society and nature.
5. To strengthen character and competence through self-management, equality, nonviolence, universal values, and effective study habits.

Course outcomes: Students will be able to

1. Examine the concepts of values, work ethics, and moral judgment in personal and social contexts.
2. Illustrate the importance of cultivating virtues such as duty, honesty, patriotism, and discipline.
3. Develop personality traits like integrity, positive thinking, and self-discipline.
4. Demonstrate attitudes and behaviors that promote universal brotherhood, tolerance, and environmental responsibility.
5. Integrate principles of character, competence, and self-management for personal and professional growth.
